

Say Goodbye to D.I.Y.!

(do it yourself)

While planning your wedding, it might feel natural to assume that if you do something yourself, you could save a little money. But when it comes to your wedding stationery, you will find that ordering your invitations from a professional is likely to cost the same amount, but provide a much higher quality product and save you the time and stress of doing it yourself.

D.I.Y.

(average cost per 100)

- Invitations & Envelopes: $59.96
- + Reception Cards: $12.99
- + Response set: $28.98
- + Home printer re-fill: $51.98
- + Hours of your precious time
- + The stress of trial and error
- + No color and design options

= A low-quality product for around
$150.91

Let's do the math:

Professional Service

- Beautiful designs
- + Multiple color options
- + Professional quality of Tatex Thermographers

Say Goodbye to D.I.Y. and Hello to Professional Service!
(and spend your time browsing our albums, not fighting your home printer)

= Beautiful invitations like these for the same price as D.I.Y.
